

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION SET

Annual Tri-State Event Scheduled for Sunday January 9

The annual tri-state Sunday school convention of the Ogden, North Weber and Weber stakes will be held in the Weber Normal college on Sunday, January 9, according to advices received from the Deseret Sunday School Union board. Dates have also been set for the conventions which will be held in all the stakes of the church during the first three months of the new year.

The program for these conventions has been adopted with the idea of presenting to the stake and local Sunday school workers a practical demonstration in getting the point of view of the pupils of the various classes toward the spiritual life, the principles of the gospel, religious meetings, with particular attention to the Sunday school, and what constitutes good training. A discussion of the development of personality of the Sunday school teacher will also be part of the program.
